

Greg Norton

BIO

Greg was born in Texas, and attended high school in Southern California. He graduated from Humboldt State University with a bachelor's degree in business; he received his teaching credential from the University of LaVerne; he also went to Boise State University where he received his master's degree in curriculum and instruction.

Greg started Sheridan Academy after teaching in both private and public schools in Southern California. After moving to Idaho in 1993, he taught at Meridian Middle School and then at Sheridan Academy. He currently teaches classes at the College of Western Idaho in addition to his Director/Instructor role at Sheridan Academy.

Greg enjoys fly-fishing, golfing, reading, camping, and boating.

Greg and his fiancée (Kathy) enjoy exercising and cooking together.

