

Mrs. Sirani

BIO

Mrs. Sirani has been a teacher at Sheridan Academy since May 2001. She grew up near Honesdale, Pennsylvania and received her degree in English and Spanish Education from Mansfield University of Pennsylvania in May of 1998. She taught in Garden Valley, Idaho for three years before coming to Sheridan.

Mrs. Sirani currently lives in Oasis, ID with her husband, Chris, stepdaughter, Sabrina, and son D.J. The family is active in 4H and raises sheep, chickens and cows.

Mrs. Sirani enjoys cooking and reading and is a member of two local book clubs. She is also active in her community as a member of her homeowners' board and as an Oasis Volunteer Firefighter. In addition, Mrs. Sirani is active in the Sheridan Academy community not only as a teacher, but also as a host mother to international students and as Education Liaison to the Board of Directors.

